INVESTIGATION INTO HUMAN TRAFFICKING COMPLAINTS RESULTS IN ARREST IN ROCKWOOD

ROCKWOOD – One woman faces charges and another accepted services following an investigation by the Rockwood Police Department, detectives with the office of 9th Judicial District Attorney General, and the TBI Human Trafficking Unit. The investigation was the result of complaints of illegal business activity being conducted at a local massage business.

During the course of the investigation, detectives and agents executed a search warrant on February 12th at 7 Massage, located at 2305 North Gateway Avenue in Harriman. As a result, one woman working at the location was arrested and taken into custody. A second woman working there accepted services provided by Grow Free Tennessee, part of the Community Coalition Against Human Trafficking.

Police arrested Sook Campbell (DOB 03/12/1944) of Lawrenceville, GA. She was charged with three counts of Patronizing Prostitution. She was booked into the Roane County Jail with a bond of ???

The investigation remains active and ongoing.
